

Luisa Porter/Dispatch Staff

TOP: Mark Randle, of West Point, and Kelsey Van Every, of Artesia, played for Elm Lake Golf Club against Green Oaks Golf Course on Saturday in the third annual Arbre Cup. BOTTOM: Joey Persechino, of Columbus, lines up a tee shot as Dana Studdard, of Columbus, watches him. Both players represented Green Oaks.

Green Oaks takes third Arbre Cup

From Special Reports

The Green Oaks Golf Club used a 9-7 edge in singles and a 6-2 advantage in four-ball Saturday to edge Elm Lake Golf Course 17-15 in the third annual Arbre Cup.

For Green Oaks, Skip Egger, Carl Lisowski, Roger Wade, Marty Hawkins, Arl Taylor, Greg Bryant, Dana Studdard, Jacob Gable, and Evan McElrath earned singles victories.

Chuck Putt, Paul Stuart, Jerry Sharpe, Blake Williamson, John Pederson, Drew Spradley, and George Hinnant earned singles victories for Elm Lake.

In scramble play, Putt and Albert McBrayer earned a victory, as did Spradley and Kurt Haase,

Pederson and Stuart, Hinnant and Ken Roberts and Williamson and Bob Manley.

Sean Johnston and Matt Farrell, of Elm Lake, halved their match with Owen Odom and Egger. Elm Lake's Sharp and Walter Butler also halved with Zac Taylor and Roger Wade.

Green Oaks' Joey Persechino and Studdard won their scramble match.

Spradley and Haase and Williamson and Manley won four-ball matches for Elm Lake.

Taylor and Chad Johnston, Bryant and Hawkins, Odom and Egger, Taylor and Wade, Persechino and Studdard, and Gable and McElrath earned four-ball victories for Green Oaks.

